ALLEGED BAD CHECK ARTIST IN JAIL

Carl E. Austerman, the alleged bad check artist, who cashed eight or nine forged paychecks between Saturday afternoon and Monday morning, was apprehended last evening about 6 o'clock in a cabin at Tybo by Officer James Hayward of the Tonopah police force and brought back to Tonopah, where he was lodged in the county jail.

Despite the fact that a local paper, with seeming intent to discredit the work of the local police, published that Austerman cashed another check at Mina Monday, the officers worked on their original clue and traced the alleged forger to Tybo. It develops that he had cashed about $340 in checks. They were taken from the back of a check book in Superintendent McCraney's office. Austerman worked only a day or two in Manhattan and then drew his time, which gave him an idea as to how the checks are made out.

After securing various sums of money from business men, Austerman proceeded to spend his coin like an inebriated sailor. He secured a hat and pair of overalls here, putting his cap in his pocket, thus making detection more difficult, and

MAKE LOCATIONS IN NEW OIL FIELD

TWO MANHATTANITES RETURN FROM LATEST EXCITEMENT AT ASH MEADOWS.

John G. Mikeltich and Tony Brackett returned early this morning from Ash Meadows, about four miles from the Johnny mill. They staked two oil claims. Some of the shale and conglomerate specimens they brought back are certainly charged with asphaltum. Mr. Mikeltich says that a large district is probably underlaid with oil. In addition to the asphaltum showings there are numerous croppings of soft shale and sandstone. On this same flat drilling is in progress for potash. Good samples were obtained from several widely separated properties.

DUTIES OF A STUDENT TO HIS GOVERNMENT

ONE OPPORTUNITY TO ASSIST IS IN PURCHASE OF THRIFT STAMPS.

L. W. Harrington, in his address to the students of the high school this morning, took for his subject, "The Duties of a Student to His Government in Time of War." It was pointed out by him that students in our schools and colleges should not enlist, but should remain at their work until they are called for service; that if school work is valuable it should go on more seriously than ever.

He said the government will need the student more when he has finished his courses than it needs him now, and that no young man in the middle of a school course who is willing to do his work well and who is looking forward to a life of usefulness as a man and a citizen need look upon himself as a "slacker" in the eyes of sensible people if he sticks to his school work.

The girls were reminded of their duty to their country by calling their attention to the demand for women in the business and professional world and that it was their duty to prepare themselves by education to fill the places they will be called upon to fill.

The opportunity of the students and people of small incomes to assist the government was explained to the students in the way of war saving stamps. This was gone into in detail and it is hoped that the students will avail themselves of this opportunity. The great American spirit of the millions of women Red Cross workers was held out as an example the students should follow and the remarks were closed by saying: "Since the time that Betsy Ross sewed the stars on our first flag until the very present moment our women are sustaining our men at the front by a spirit of self-sacrifice, without the hope of reward and proud only that they are American citizens."

FOUND NOT GUILTY.

H. M. Williams of Luning was tried yesterday on the charge of illegally impersonating an officer. It appears that he had secured the enmity of people whom he charged with making seditious utterances. The defendant was quickly acquitted. He was defended by Judges Forman and Somers.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE BUTLER.

Today the last number of "The Fighting Trail" will be shown, and it is some picture. See what happened to Gwyn when the passenger train ran off the bridge. Different fates for three arch villains. Tragic each, but widely different, are the fates meted out to the arch villains. Plenty of action, amusing and entertaining. With "The Fighting Trail" will be seen "The Grell Mystery." A millionaire on the eve of his marriage is to pay blackmail to the husband of a former sweetheart. The would-be blackmailer is killed by his wife in the library of the millionaire's home and the body discovered by the sister of his promised bride. Believing her guilty and to save her he disappears and the body is mistaken for that of himself. The solution of the crime is a fascinating story. "The Grell Mystery" features Earl Williams and an unusually strong cast. Tomorrow, Emmilly Stevens, in "The Sleeping Memory," and a new Fox sunshine comedy, "A Milk-Fed Vamp," which is rich in comic situations and is what is commonly called a scream. Matinee daily at 1:30; evening, 7 and 8:30. Remember, last of "The Fighting Trail" today. Come early.

Bring your watch to be repaired to Emil Merman, one of the finest watchmakers who ever came to Tonopah. With Roberts Grocery. advJ25tf
